3. Justification and Learning Objectives for the Course. (Indicate whether required or elective, and whether it meets University Writing, and/or Language requirements/)

Justification: This course contributes to the Liberal Studies options and General Education. This introductory course provides the student with a basic understanding of human biological and cultural evolution from the African forests and savannas of 30 million years ago to the present. Because of its evolutionary thrust, this course provides an excellent foundation for further study in history, biology, geology, and anthropology, as well as a general understanding of humanity.

Learning Objectives. Upon completion of course, the student will be able to:
- Outline the major trends in human evolution.
- Discuss the mechanisms of evolution in general and specifically how they apply to human evolution.
- Describe the cultural adaptations humans have made through time.
