3. Justification and Requirements for the Course. (Make a brief statement to justify the need for the course)
A. Justification: A course of this nature and content will allow students to expand upon elements learned in previous ART courses (ART 107 Life Drawing and ART 202 Sculpture). Students will have the opportunity to develop traditional and experimental skills in the development of sculptural projects that represent the human figure. Courses such as these are common in college and university art programs throughout the world.

B. Degree Requirement: X Elective for the Major/Minor
Note: Submit Program Modification if this course changes your program.

4. Learning Objectives. (List in numerical order. You may wish to use the following resource in utilizing measurable verbs: http://senate.csuci.edu/comm/curriculum/resources.htm)
Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:
- Work with a wide variety of materials and tools to model the three-dimensional human image.
- Develop projects that involve basic traditional and contemporary methods of figurative sculpture.
- Utilize the human image as a means of social, political and cultural artistic expression.
- Interpret and critique figurative sculpture through critical analysis and comparison.
- Develop competency with sculptural media while working from life and direct observation.
- Evaluate projects in a group critiques with the instructor and fellow students.
- Apply knowledge of human anatomy to sculptural projects.
- Produce figurative sculptures using additive, subtractive and plastic methods.

5. Course Content in Outline Form. [Be as brief as possible, but use as much space as necessary]
1. Theories and concepts utilized by figurative sculptors
2. Safety rules and etiquette with sculptural tools
3. Principles of order: balance, proportion, unity, variety, and movement
4. Processes: additive, subtractive, and plastic methods
5. Bas-relief, portrait head, full human figure
6. Armature and hand building
7. Molds and casting
8. Anatomy and aesthetics in representational sculpture
9. Historical and contemporary development of the human image in sculpture
10. The human figure as a vehicle for social, political and cultural expression
