Policy on the use of undergraduate courses to meet graduate requirements

Policy #: 05-24

Drafted By: Student Academic Policies and Procedures (SAPP) Committee 2005-2006
(membership: Beatrice de Oca and Virgil Adams – co-chairs;
Amy Denton, Simone Aloisio, Jesse Elliot, and Damon Blue)

Applicability: All CSUCI graduate degree students

Purpose: To establish policy on the use of upper division undergraduate courses to meet graduate degree requirements

Policy: At least 70% of the total units used to meet graduate degree requirements must be in graduate level (500 & 600 level) courses. If an upper-division course is taken by a grad student to fulfill the unit requirements of a Masters program, supplemental, graduate-level work must be completed.

Background: Title 5 requirement: (B) Not less than one-half of the units required for the degree shall be in courses organized primarily for graduate students.
