

BY-LAWS OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE
OF
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY CHANNEL ISLANDS

ARTICLE 1

NAME

- 1.1 The name of the organization shall be the Academic Senate of California State University Channel Islands (hereafter referred to as “the Senate.”)

ARTICLE 2

FACULTY MEMBERSHIP AND DUTIES

- 2.1 In accordance with the Constitution of the Academic Senate of California State University Channel Islands [1.10], the Senate is constituted as follows:
- a. All tenured and probationary faculty are members of the Academic Senate.
 - b. Lecturer faculty may elect up to five (5) representatives to the Academic Senate. Lecturer representatives must be appointed to no fewer than six WTUs during the semester of their election. No more than two of the representatives of the lecturer faculty shall be from the same program.
 - c. The Associated Students of CI may appoint one representative.
 - d. All senators have a duty to attend Senate meetings whenever possible. Senators who cannot attend Academic Senate for one semester or longer may opt to leave the Senate for that period of time in order to reduce quorum. To do so, Senators must notify the Senate Chair in writing or via e-mail prior to the first Senate meeting of the semester indicating the duration of their absence.

ARTICLE 3

SENATE OFFICERS

- 3.1 The elected officers of the Academic Senate consist of a Chair, a Vice Chair, and a Secretary chosen from the membership described in Article 2 of these bylaws. Each officer may be reelected, but not for more than three (3) one-year consecutive terms.
- 3.2 Election of Officers and Terms of Office

- a. Election of the Chair: The Senate shall elect a Chair from among its membership, who shall take office on July 1st and serve a one year term. The Chair shall be elected as described in Section 3.3 of this document.
- b. Election of the Vice Chair: The Vice Chair shall be elected in the same manner as the Chair and shall serve the same term of office as the Chair.
- c. Election of the Secretary: The Secretary shall be elected in the same manner as the Vice Chair and shall serve the same term of office.

3.3 Election Procedures for Senate Officers

- a. Nomination and election for offices of the Senate shall be conducted in four steps: Nominations, published platform/intent statements by nominees, public Q&A, vote.
- b. Nominations shall be submitted to the Committee and Committees in writing no later than April 1 of every year.
- c. Platform/intent statements by nominees shall be disseminated no later than April 7.
- d. The public Q&A session shall be held before the last faculty Senate meeting at the time or times selected by the Committee on Committees deemed conducive to faculty attendance.
- e. The nominee shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast by secret ballot for a candidate, abstentions or votes for “none of the above” shall not be counted. Where no nominee receives the majority of the votes cast, a subsequent ballot shall be prepared. Nominees who receive the highest number of votes on the previous ballot and whose votes, when added together, result in a majority of the votes cast, shall appear on the next ballot. The first vote will be held by secret ballot conducted by the Committee on Committees before the last regularly-scheduled Senate meeting of the Academic year. Such ballots may be conducted electronically, or by means of a paper ballot. Voting shall continue on the floor of the Senate using a secret ballot until one nominee receives a majority of votes cast, or through six (6) ballots. If a nominee does not receive a majority after six (6) ballots, the nominee with the highest number of votes cast in the sixth ballot shall be elected. If there is more than one nominee with the highest number, the winner will be selected by lot.
- f. Senators shall vote for no more than one (1) nominee for each position on the first and any subsequent ballot.

3.4 Duties

- a. The Chair is responsible for presiding over meetings of the Senate and the Executive Committee, and, when necessary, for selecting and referring proposals to appropriate committees. The Chair or designee shall serve as the alternate for The California

State University Academic Senate and shall attend the meetings of The California State University Academic Senate when an elected senator must miss a given meeting or there is no time to elect a replacement. The Chair shall transmit all official actions of the Academic Senate to the President of the university. When invited by the appropriate administrative officer, the Chair may attend meetings of administrative groups, but shall not take policy positions on matters not previously acted upon by the Senate.

- b. The Vice Chair will assume all the responsibilities of the Chair in the absence of the Chair. When invited by the appropriate administrative officer, the Vice Chair may attend meetings of administrative groups, but shall not take policy positions on matters not previously acted upon by the Senate.
- c. The Secretary is responsible for recording and distributing the Senate Minutes (with assistance of the Senate Office staff). When invited by the appropriate administrative officer, the Secretary may attend meetings of administrative groups, but shall not take policy positions on matters not previously acted upon by the Senate.
- d. Any other additional duties, including committee memberships, must be specifically assigned to Senate officers through action of the Senate.

3.5 Vacated Offices

- a. If the Office of Chair becomes vacant, the Vice Chair shall assume the Office of Chair.
- b. If the office of Vice Chair or Secretary becomes vacant, the Senate shall conduct elections expeditiously and install a replacement officer for the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE 4

MEETINGS

Meeting Days

- 4.1 The Academic Senate shall meet on Tuesdays from 2:30 pm to 4:30 pm.
- 4.2 The Academic Senate shall meet at least once a month during the academic year.

Quorum

- 4.3 A quorum shall consist of a 40 percent of the voting members of the Academic Senate for regularly scheduled meetings and 40 percent for special meetings of the Academic Senate.

Special Meetings

- 4.4 Special meetings of the Academic Senate may be called by the President or by the Chair of the Academic Senate. A special meeting shall be called by the Chair of the Senate upon a petition certified by the Secretary of the Senate to contain the signatures of at least ten percent of the Academic Senate electorate; in these circumstances the meeting must be scheduled no later than three academic days after the petition has been so certified.

Cancellation of Regularly Scheduled Meeting

- 4.5 The Executive Committee may cancel regularly scheduled meetings. In case of an emergency the Chair may cancel a regularly scheduled meeting.

Policies and Resolutions

- 4.6 Definition: Policies are the regulations governing academic programs, curricula, etc. Policies are passed by the Senate and require the approval of the President. Resolutions are passed by Senate and express the will of the Faculty. They do not require Presidential approval.
- 4.7 Format: The standard format for Policies can be found on the Senate home page. Resolutions follow an accepted format.
- 4.8 Procedure for introducing policies or resolutions to the Senate.
- a. Proposed new policies and resolutions shall be presented to the Chair of the Senate for placement on the agenda. Policy proposals and resolutions shall normally be placed before the Senate at least one meeting before final action is taken. In exceptional circumstances, a first reading item can be moved to a second reading item by the following procedure: a motion must be made and seconded. This motion is debatable, not amendable and cannot be reconsidered. The motion requires a two-thirds majority to pass. If passed, the first reading item becomes a second reading item.
 - b. Unless referred to an appropriate standing or special committee, the original drafts of these proposed policies and resolutions shall be reproduced and attached to the agenda of the Senate meeting during which they are scheduled for a First Reading.
 - c. During the First Reading, policy measures and resolutions may be read aloud and discussed before referral to committee, or, if there is no protest, they may be referred directly to the appropriate standing committee by the Chair without being read aloud, or they may be read and discussed for informational purposes only without referral to a committee.
 - d. A Resolution may be added to the agenda as a First Reading item at a meeting of the Academic Senate if it is sponsored by at least one voting member of the Senate and a motion, not debatable, approving its addition to the agenda is passed by a two-thirds majority.

Consent Calendar

- 4.9 Policy statements may become Senate policy by consent by being placed on the consent calendar using the following procedures.
- a. Recommendations may be placed on the Consent Calendar when deemed non-controversial by the Chair of the Senate.
 - b. Upon approval of the Senate agenda, a consent calendar item is deemed approved.
 - c. Any Senator may remove a recommendation from the consent calendar and place it on the agenda as a first reading item at the time of approval of the agenda.

Recording of Discussion and Motions on the Floor of the Senate

- 4.10 The Secretary of the Academic Senate shall keep minutes for each meeting of the Academic Senate. Every motion that has been made and seconded at the meeting shall be recorded in the minutes. The disposition of each motion shall be made clear with the vote recorded in the minutes, together with a summary of the discussion.

Procedural Rules

4.11 Rules on Debate

- a. Members of the Senate must be recognized by the Chair of the Senate prior to beginning to speak.
- b. The member who made a motion has the right to speak to the motion first. In the case of a motion to approve a resolution, the member who made the motion follows the member who introduced the resolution.
- c. A member may speak only twice to the same motion on the same day.
- d. Each member may speak no more than five minutes. Any unused time is forfeited and cannot be applied to a subsequent debate by this same member or yielded to another member.
- e. Debate of a motion must be relevant to the motion. The Chair of the Senate shall determine whether debate has deviated from the motion being considered.
- f. Members of the Senate shall not make ad hominem statements on the Senate floor.

- g. The Chair of the Senate shall remain impartial to the debate. If the Chair wishes to speak to a motion, he/she must relinquish the chair to the Vice-Chair or Secretary of the Senate, in that order. If the Vice-Chair and Secretary of the Senate are not present, the Chair may not speak to a motion without first relinquishing the chair to some other member of the Senate.
- h. Members may speak to a motion and conclude their remarks by making a higher-ranking motion, such as calling for the question, moving to table, or any of the other options specified in Robert's Rules of Order.

Voting

- 4.12 A majority vote is defined as a majority of the members voting; a 2/3 majority is defined as 2/3 of the members voting. Abstentions or votes for “none of the above” shall not be counted.
- a. All votes on motions to approve policies and resolutions shall normally be conducted electronically. If electronic voting is not available then voting will take place by a show of hands unless the Senate Chair or one of the senators requests a paper ballot. In the case of a hand vote, the Chair will designate someone to count. Paper ballots will be counted by two ex-officio, non-voting members appointed by the Chair, who will report the results to the Senate Secretary. Senators may not cast votes in absentia.
 - b. A majority vote is defined as a majority of the members voting; a 2/3 majority is defined as 2/3 of the members voting. Abstentions or votes for “none of the above” shall not count for the purpose of determining whether a vote on an item of business passes or not – however abstentions can be recorded in the minutes.

ARTICLE 5

COMMITTEES

Types

5.1 Executive Committee

- a. Composition: The Executive Committee of the Academic Senate shall consist of nine or more members, including the Chair, Vice-chair, Secretary, the immediate past year's Chair of the Academic Senate, and three or more at-large members of the Senate, the representative(s) to the California State University Statewide Academic Senate, and the student representative to the Academic Senate; and ex officio members to include the President and the Vice President for Academic Affairs of California State University Channel Islands or their designees, and a faculty representative of the union.

b. Charge

1. Setting the agenda for the Senate's general meetings, to act in place of the Senate when the Senate is not in session, and to exercise such other powers as the Senate may delegate.
2. Making recommendations to the Senate concerning the formulation, revision, adoption, and review of policies and procedures related to all academic matters delegated to the President of CSU Channel Islands by law and the Trustees and Chancellor of the California State University. Areas of responsibility shall include, but not be limited to, those dealing with academic, personnel, and fiscal policies and procedures.
3. Having responsibility for oversight of Academic Senate committees including:
 - i. Recommending to the Senate the creation of all new standing committees;
 - ii. Proposing changes to the Constitution or Bylaws necessitated by the creation of new standing committees;
 - iii. Proposing the creation of such ad hoc committees as it deems necessary to insure the performance of Senate duties;
 - iv. Proposing methods for selecting the membership of Academic Senate committees.
 - v. Selecting faculty representatives to University-wide Committees; it may at its discretion request that the Committee on Committees hold an election.
 - vi. Serving as a budget committee for the Senate with the primary responsibilities for:
 - (a) preparing and submitting all necessary Senate budget requests to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs; and
 - (b) supervising administration of Senate budget expenditures when (or if) necessary.
 - vii. Receiving reports from faculty representatives on University-wide committees regarding the activities of their committees at least once each semester.

5.2 The committees of the Senate shall be:

- a. The Executive Committee as described above.
- b. Standing Committees as specified in the Bylaws;

- c. Advisory Committees; and
- d. Special or ad hoc committees established by special action of the Senate for the purpose of considering proposals that do not fall within the purview of the current standing committees.

Identification of Members and Election of Chairs for the Committees

5.3 Standing Committees

- a. Membership on Standing committees: Tenured, probationary and lecturer faculty with no fewer than 6 WTUs at the time of the election are eligible to serve on standing committees.
- b. Electorate for Standing Committees: The tenured and probationary faculty shall nominate and elect all members of Standing Committees except in cases where seats have been explicitly designated for lecturer faculty. Lecturer faculty shall nominate and elect committee seats designated for lecturer faculty.
- c. Each Standing Committee will elect a Chair or Co-Chairs from among the committee members.
- d. Chairs of Standing Committees who are not voting members of the Senate will be made ex-officio non-voting members of the Academic Senate and may be called upon to report on behalf of their committees to the Senate Executive Committee and/or the Academic Senate.

5.4 Advisory Committees

- a. Membership on Advisory Committees: Tenured, probationary and lecturer faculty with no fewer than 6 WTU's at the time of the election are eligible to serve on Advisory Committees.
- b. Electorate for Standing Committees: The tenured and probationary faculty shall nominate and elect all members of Standing Committees except in cases where seats have been explicitly designated for lecturer faculty. Lecturer faculty shall nominate and elect committee seats designated for lecturer faculty.
- c. Advisory Committees will elect a chair from among the committee members.
- d. The purpose of an advisory committee is to guide the priorities, programs, and services of an office (such as faculty development, information technology, or grants and contracts), and to make recommendations on any operations budget allocated to or requested by that office that impinge on the work or responsibilities of the faculty.

5.5 Special Committees and ad hoc Committees

- a. Each special Academic Senate committee shall include at least one representative from each affected constituency (tenure track and temporary faculty, students, staff or administrators).
- b. The Academic Senate shall have the power to create ad hoc committees for specific assignments which cannot be handled adequately by the Academic Senate at-large, by one of the existing committees, or by an administrative officer.
- c. Ad hoc committees shall be constituted in a manner suited to their tasks and should, where appropriate, include at least one representative from each affected constituency (tenure track and temporary faculty, students, staff or administrators).
- d. Ad hoc committees and all subcommittees shall cease to exist upon completion of their specific assignments or at the end of the academic year unless specifically authorized by the Senate to continue beyond that date.

5.6 Faculty representatives to University-wide Committees shall be selected by the Senate Executive Committee. The Senate Executive Committee may at its discretion request that the Committee on Committees hold an election. Faculty representatives on University-wide committees shall report to the Senate Executive Committee regarding the activities of their committees at least once each semester.

Committee Policies

- 5.7 The Academic Senate shall oversee the creation and operation of all special and standing committees created by this Constitution. Policy proposals and modifications shall be referred by the Academic Senate to the appropriate committee for study. The committee shall then report its findings to the Senate Executive Committee, which will then take appropriate action based on the committee's findings or proposals.
- 5.8 A committee may act on its own initiative or at the request of any member of the university community within the general area of responsibility assigned to it by the Academic Senate.
- 5.9 Any committee may establish regular subcommittees. These subcommittees shall report to the committee. At least one member of the subcommittee shall be an elected faculty member of the committee. Other members may be drawn from any segment of the University community, except that only faculty members may serve on subcommittees that deal with faculty personnel matters.
- 5.10 All committee minutes and reports shall be filed with the Academic Senate's administrative assistant, who will enter them in the Academic Senate Archives and make them available to the Academic Senate, except that access to reports of personnel review cases are limited by privacy regulations and policies.

- 5.11 Ex-officio non-voting members of committees may attend meetings in person or send a representative who shall act in place of the member. Chairs of standing, special, or ad hoc committees may recommend to the Senate Executive Committee that a committee member be replaced if that member accrues excessive absences. “Excessive absences” shall be defined by the committee.

Standing Committees: Composition

- 5.12 Members shall be elected for two-year staggered terms (except where noted) to ensure that each committee has rotating membership (see section 5.3 for voter and membership eligibility). In some instances, committee representation by a particular unit will be noted. However, in instances where no unit or program is dictated, the seat will be open to any discipline and will be indicated as such by the phrase, 'at-large'. If a discipline specific seat is not filled during the first nomination and election cycle, it will become an at-large seat. For lecturers, all standing committee assignments are at-large. The composition of the standing committees shall be as follows:
- a. The Committee for Centers and Institutes shall consist of five voting at-large faculty members. The directors of centers and institutes will serve as ex officio members.
