PROPOSAL TO OFFER A MINOR IN FALL 2002

Proposed Name of Minor: Business Management
Faculty Proposing Minor: William P. Cordeiro, PhD

1. Catalog Description:

Minor in Business Management (21 units)
Provides non-majors with learning opportunities in a subject area related to many activities in modern society. The Minor introduces students to business and management concepts. First, the Program builds a basic understanding of economics, computer systems, law, mathematics and writing applied in business management. Next, the Program uses a variety of teaching and learning techniques to convey advanced management concepts common to a variety of organizational settings.

2. Justification for Proposed Minor (< 100 words):

Many areas of modern life require an understanding of business and management concepts. Most people work within an organizational structure. All organizations must address financial, human resources, information systems and management issues. This Minor will assist all students in being more effective participants in their fields of work.

3. Total Number of Units in the Minor (including pre-/ co-requisites): 21

3. Lower-Division Requirements (including pre-/ co-requisites): 9 units Required
