

BY-LAWS OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE OF CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY CHANNEL ISLANDS

ARTICLE 1

NAME

- 1.1 The name of the organization shall be the Academic Senate of California State University Channel Islands (hereafter referred to as “the Senate.”)

ARTICLE 2

MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING RIGHTS

- 2.1 In accordance with the Constitution of the Academic Senate of California State University Channel Islands [1.10], the Senate is constituted as follows:

a. Represented Faculty Membership with Full Voting Rights

- i. All faculty (in the represented group) with a workload of at least 6 WTUs during the semester of election and a minimum of two years of employment at CI are eligible to be elected as a Senator for a two-year term.

(1) Terms will be randomly set at one or two-years in the first year of implementation to stagger the terms going forward.

- ii. One faculty member elected by the faculty from each chaired department, departments having ten or more tenure track faculty will receive an additional senate seat.¹

- iii. One faculty member elected from each Unity Coalition Group².

(1) Unity Coalition Groups are those organizations that have been recognized by the Office of the President and Cabinet, meeting criteria specified by that body.

- iv. Lecturer faculty may elect up to four (4) representatives to the Academic Senate. No more than two of the representatives of the lecturer faculty shall be from the same program.

- v. All elected faculty Senators, Senate Officers, chairs of Senate Standing Committees, and Statewide Senators are full voting members of senate.

¹ Programs with a coordinator may make the case for representation via a policy to be created.

² A separate policy shall be created to formalize the Unity Coalition and detail membership. At the time of writing, Spring 2022, there are six existing groups: AAPIA, BFSA, CHILFASA, LGBTQI, WOC, IFSA

- (1) The Senate Chair is typically a non-voting member but may vote as a tie-breaker.
- (2) Elected representative senators may not hold Faculty Ex-Officio Non-voting positions on Senate.
- b. Faculty Membership as Ex-Officio Non-voting
 - i. The Faculty Center Directors are ex-officio non-voting members of senate.
 - ii. The CFA executive committee representative is ex-officio non-voting.
- c. Non-faculty Membership (Ex-Officio Membership) with Limited Voting Rights
 - i. The Associated Students of CI may appoint one representative.
 - ii. Three staff representatives chosen by the Staff Council.
 - iii. Three Management Personnel Plan I & II (MPP) representatives appointed by the Provost, one each from the offices of:
 - (1) Advising,
 - (2) Registrar, and
 - (3) Curriculum.
 - iv. All non-faculty ex-officio members of senate, unless otherwise noted, have limited voting rights in senate.
- d. Non-faculty Membership (Ex-Officio) with No Voting Rights
 - i. The President, Provost, and Vice President members of the President's Cabinet are non-voting members of the Academic Senate.

2.2 The following outlines voting rights for senators and non-senator faculty.

- a. All Faculty Issues: senator and non-senator faculty (tenure-track and lecturer faculty) may vote on:
 - i. Senate Chair
 - ii. Standing Committee, Standing subcommittee, and Advisory Committee memberships
 - iii. Appointments, Elections, and Bylaws Committee membership
- b. All Senator and Tenure Track Faculty Issues: all senator and non-senator tenure track faculty may vote on:
 - i. All matters relating to Senate Constitution changes/amendments
 - ii. All matters relating to Bylaw changes/amendments

- c. All Senator Faculty Issues: Only faculty senators may vote on:
 - i. Policies relating to the promotion to and/or tenure of faculty
 - ii. Standing Committee Chairs
 - iii. Curriculum

2.3 Proxy

- i. Senators may vote in person or by proxy. Senators must notify the Senate Chair in writing or via e-mail if a proxy is given to another senator for voting purposes. Senators may not hold more than one proxy for an absent senator.

2.4 Censure of a Senator

- i. A senator may be censured for un-collegial behavior and rhetoric such as ad hominem remarks or lack of attendance; such action shall require a two-thirds majority of the voting members of Senate present.

ARTICLE 3

SENATE OFFICERS AND STANDING COMMITTEE CHAIRS ELECTIONS

- 3.1 The elected officers of the Academic Senate consist of a Chair, a Vice Chair, and a Third Officer elected from the Senate membership described below. The Chair will be elected for a two-year term. The Chair may be reelected for another consecutive term, then be eligible to serve again after a two-year hiatus.
- 3.2 Election of Officers and Terms of Office
 - a. The Senate Chair will be elected by ALL faculty to a two-year term. Should the elected senate chair be a current senator, their seat will be open in the subsequent senator elections.
 - b. The annual election of Senate officers, some Standing Committee chairs, and members of the Appointments and Elections Committee for the following academic year, shall be conducted prior to the last Senate meeting within one month after the election of new Senators and Local Curriculum Committee Chairs.
 - i. Nominations shall be made in accordance with the provisions for eligibility outlined in the Constitution.
 - ii. For remaining senate standing committee chair elections incoming and continuing Senators may vote. Outgoing Senators may vote if the incoming Senator has not yet been determined.

- iii. Elections for standing committee chairs shall be conducted in the following order should positions be open:
 - (1) Vice Chair/Second Officer (Chair of Senate Budget Committee — 2-year term)
 - (2) Third Officer (Chair of Committee on Equity and Anti-racism — 2-year term)
 - (3) Chair of Academic Policies and Planning Committee — 1 year term (one of the LCC chairs elected by LCC chairs may be reelected)

- iv. Appointments, Elections, and Bylaws Committee members (2-year terms) shall be elected by ALL faculty.
- c. Unless otherwise noted in the by-laws Senate Officers and Appointments and Elections Committee members shall be elected for two-year staggered terms.
- d. All nominees for an office shall be listed on the first ballot. Those having the highest number of votes, and whose votes, when added together constitute a majority of the votes cast, shall appear on the next ballot. Voting shall continue in this manner until one candidate receives a majority of the votes cast.

3.3 Election Results

- a. The Chair of the Senate shall present election results to the President of the University, the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, and to the Senate Office.
- b. The Senate Office shall publish/disseminate the election results.
- c. The numerical results of all ballots shall be made available to senators.

3.4 Position Eligibility

- a. All tenure track faculty and lecturer faculty with a workload of at least 6 WTUs per year and with four years on campus at the time of the election are eligible to run for Academic Senate Chair.
- b. Returning Senators or new senators who were previous members of the Senate Budget Committee (or previous named Fiscal Policies Committee) are eligible to run for Senate Budget Committee Chair.
- c. Returning Senators or new senators who were previous members of the Committee for Equity and Anti-Racism Committee are eligible to run for Equity and Anti-Racism Committee Chair.
- d. Tenured faculty who are new or returning Local Curriculum Committee Chairs, or current non-chair faculty members of the APPC are eligible to serve as Academic Policy and Planning Chair.

- e. Returning Senators or new senators who were previous members of the Faculty Affairs Committee are eligible to run for Faculty Affairs Committee Chair.
- f. All Senators are eligible to run for the Appointments, Elections, & Bylaws Chair.

3.5 Duties

- a. The Chair is responsible for presiding over meetings of the Senate and the Executive Committee, and, when necessary, for selecting and referring proposals to appropriate committees. The Chair or designee shall serve as the alternate for The California State University Academic Senate and shall attend the meetings of The California State University Academic Senate when an elected senator must miss a given meeting or there is no time to elect a replacement. The Chair shall transmit all official actions of the Academic Senate to the President of the university. When invited by the appropriate administrative officer, the Chair may attend meetings of administrative groups, but shall not take policy positions on matters not previously acted upon by the Senate.
- b. The Vice Chair shall serve as chair of the Senate Budget Committee and will assume all the responsibilities of the Chair in the absence of the Chair. When invited by the appropriate administrative officer, the Vice Chair may attend meetings of administrative groups, but shall not take policy positions on matters not previously acted upon by the Senate.
- c. The Third Officer shall serve as chair of the Committee for Equity and Anti-Racism and is responsible for working with the Senate Office Staff on matter of record of senate including minutes and final policy drafts. When invited by the appropriate administrative officer, the Third Officer may attend meetings of administrative groups, but shall not take policy positions on matters not previously acted upon by the Senate.
- d. Any other additional duties, including committee memberships, must be specifically assigned to Senate officers through action of the Senate.
- e. Standing Committee Chair duties are outlined by committee in Article 5.

3.6 Vacated Offices

- a. If the Office of Chair becomes vacant, the Vice Chair shall assume the Office of Chair.
- b. If the office of Vice Chair or Third Officer becomes vacant, the Appointments, Elections, and By-laws committee shall conduct elections expeditiously and install a replacement officer for the remainder of the term.

ARTICLE 4

MEETINGS

Meeting Days

- 4.1 The Academic Senate shall meet on Tuesdays from 2:30pm to 4:30pm.
- 4.2 The Academic Senate shall meet every two weeks during the academic year.

Quorum

- 4.3 A quorum shall consist of an 80 percent of the voting members of the Academic Senate for regularly scheduled meetings and 80 percent for special meetings of the Academic Senate.
- 4.4 All senators have a duty to attend Senate meetings whenever possible. Virtual attendance will be made available. Senators must notify the Senate Chair in writing or via e-mail if a proxy is given to another senator for voting purposes. Senators may not hold more than one proxy. Proxies do not count toward quorum.
- 4.5 Senators who miss more than two (2) senate meetings in a semester may be censured, suspended or recalled by their constituents.

Special Meetings

- 4.6 Special meetings of the Academic Senate may be called by the President or by the Chair of the Academic Senate. A special meeting shall be called by the Chair of the Senate upon a petition certified by the Third Officer of the Senate to contain the signatures (may be electronic) of at least ten percent of the Academic Senate electorate; in these circumstances the meeting must be scheduled no later than three academic days after the petition has been so certified.

Cancellation of Regularly Scheduled Meeting

- 4.7 The Executive Committee may cancel regularly scheduled meetings. In case of an emergency the Chair may cancel a regularly scheduled meeting.

Policies and Resolutions

- 4.8 Definition: Policies are the regulations governing academic programs, curricula, etc. Policies are passed by the Senate and require the approval of the President. Resolutions are passed by Senate and express the will of the Faculty. They do not require Presidential approval.
- 4.9 Format: The standard format for Policies can be found on the Senate home page. Resolutions follow an accepted format.
- 4.10 Procedure for introducing policies or resolutions to the Senate.

- a. Proposed new policies and resolutions shall be presented to the Chair of the Senate for review by the Senate Executive Committee for consideration for placement on a future senate agenda as a first reading item. Policies must be sponsored by a senate committee or come through the President's Policy and Planning Council. Policy proposals and resolutions shall normally be placed before the Senate at least one meeting before final action is taken.
 - i. In exceptional circumstances, a first reading item can be moved to a second reading item by the following procedure: a motion must be made and seconded. This motion is debatable, not amendable and cannot be reconsidered. The motion requires a two thirds majority to pass. If passed, the first reading item becomes a second reading item.
 - ii. A Resolution may be added to the agenda as a First Reading item at a meeting of the Academic Senate if it is sponsored by at least one voting member of the Senate and a motion, not debatable, approving its addition to the agenda is passed by a two-thirds majority.
- b. Unless referred to an appropriate standing or special committee, the original drafts of these proposed polices and resolutions shall be reproduced and attached to the agenda of the Academic Senate meeting during which they are scheduled for a first reading.
- c. During the First Reading, policy measures and resolutions may be read aloud and discussed before referral to committee, or, if there is no protest, they may be referred directly to the appropriate standing committee by the Chair without being read aloud, or they may be read and discussed for informational purposes only without referral to a committee.

Consent Calendar

- 4.11 Policy statements may become Senate policy by consent by being placed on the consent calendar using the following procedures.
 - a. Recommendations may be placed on the Consent Calendar when deemed noncontroversial by the Chair of the Senate.
 - b. Any Senator may remove a recommendation from the consent calendar and place it on the agenda as a first reading item at the time of approval of the agenda.
 - c. Upon approval of the Senate agenda, a consent calendar item is deemed approved.

Recording of Discussion and Motions on the Floor of the Senate

- 4.12 The Senate Office Staff shall keep minutes for each meeting of the Academic Senate. Every motion that has been made and seconded at the meeting shall be recorded in the minutes. The disposition of each motion shall be made clear with the vote recorded in the minutes, together with a summary of the discussion.

Procedural Rules

4.13 Rules on Debate

- a. Members of the Senate or guest must be recognized by the Chair of the Senate prior to beginning to speak. The Senate Chair has the role to manage the debate including the discretion to call on speakers either for order or time.
- b. The member who made a motion has the right to speak to the motion first. In the case of a motion to approve a resolution, the member who made the motion follows the member who introduced the resolution.
- c. A senator may give their speaking time to a non-senator.
- d. A member or guest speaker may speak only twice to the same motion on the same day.
- e. Each speaker may talk for no more than five minutes total to the given motion. Any unused time is forfeited and cannot be applied to a subsequent debate by this same member or yielded to another member.
- f. Exceptions to points c, d, and e above shall be made at the discretion of the Chair when necessary to provide information.
- g. Debate of a motion must be relevant to the motion. The Chair of the Senate shall determine whether debate has deviated from the motion being considered.
- h. Members of the Senate shall not make ad hominem statements on the Senate floor and may be subject to censure.
- i. The Chair of the Senate shall remain impartial to the debate. If the Chair wishes to speak to a motion, he/she must relinquish the chair to the Vice-Chair or Third Officer, in that order. If the Vice-Chair and Third Officer of the Senate are not present, the Chair may not speak to a motion without first relinquishing the chair to some other member of the Senate.
- j. Members may speak to a motion and conclude their remarks by making a higher ranking motion, such as calling for the question, moving to table, or any of the other options specified in Robert's Rules of Order.

Voting

- 4.14 A majority vote is defined as a majority of the members voting; a 2/3 majority is defined as 2/3 of the members voting. Abstentions or votes for “none of the above” shall not be counted for the purpose of determining whether a vote on an item of business passes or not but will be recorded in the minutes.
- a. All votes on motions to approve policies and resolutions shall normally be conducted by a roll call vote (voice or electronic) with each vote recorded in the minutes. Proxy votes will be collected.
 - b. For non-controversial matters a call for unanimous consent may be requested by the Chair.

ARTICLE 5

STANDING COMMITTEES MEMBERSHIP AND CHARGES

5.1 Committees of the Senate

- a. The Executive Committee;
- b. Standing and Advisory Committees as specified in the By-laws;
- c. Ad hoc committees established by special action of the Senate for the purpose of considering proposals that do not fall within the purview of the current standing committees.

5.2 Committee Guidelines

- a. Standing committees will be composed of senators and non-senator faculty members, tenured, untenured and lecturer faculty unless otherwise noted. Staff may be included as ex-officio to inform the work of the committee. Standing Committee Chairs will be elected from the senate membership unless otherwise noted in Article 3.
- b. All faculty are eligible to be elected to a maximum of two (2) Senate Committees³.
- c. All sub-committees will elect a Chair or Co-Chairs from among the committee members, except in cases where a Director or Chair is already designated to serve in this capacity, as with, for example, the mission centers or Local Curriculum Committees.
- d. Chairs of Standing Committees who are not voting members of the Senate will be made ex-officio non-voting members of the Academic Senate and may be called upon to report on behalf of their committees to the Senate Executive Committee and/or the Academic Senate.
- e. Committee vacancies (either after the spring elections or for midterm replacements) shall lead to replacement appointments to be conducted by the Appointments, Elections, and By-laws Committee in consultation with the Senate Executive Committee, except for open seats on the Senate Executive Committee or the Appointments, Elections and By-Laws Committee, which must be filled through an election process.
- f. A committee may act on its own initiative or at the request of any member of the university community within the general area of responsibility assigned to it by the Academic Senate.

³ Faculty may run for more and if elected to more than two, shall select no more than two to serve on.

- g. Any committee may establish regular subcommittees. These subcommittees shall report to the committee. At least one member of the subcommittee shall be an elected faculty member of the committee. Other members may be drawn from any segment of the University community, except that only faculty members may serve on subcommittees that deal with faculty personnel matters.
- h. All committees will submit to the Senate Executive Committee their meeting minutes, agenda, time/date/location of the next meeting, and any other information that the Committee believes should be shared with Academic Senate (i.e., reports, evidence, research) seven (7) days in advance of the next scheduled Academic Senate Meeting.
- i. Ex-officio non-voting members of committees may attend meetings in person or send a representative who shall act in place of the member. Chairs of standing or ad hoc committees may recommend to the Senate Executive Committee that a committee member be replaced if that member accrues excessive absences. "Excessive absences" shall be defined by the committee.
