Course Descriptions

EDUC 605   Education in a Diverse Society (3)

Effective leadership in working with diverse communities of teachers, students, and families. Issues of gender, ethnicity, language, culture and disability are addressed in the context of promoting equity and excellence in learning opportunities and social interaction. Strategies for effectively involving families of diverse cultures in support of their child's educational achievement.

EDUC 615   Principles of Educational Research (3)

Acquire knowledge and skills to conduct disciplined inquiry for educational professionals. Critically analyze the nature and quality of published research. Design and individual Masters project or thesis proposal.

EDUC 616   Masters Research Thesis/Project (1)
              May be repeated.
              Continuing registration required until project completed

Independent research on topic of choice with advisor approval.

EDPL 610   Foundation of Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment for Educational Leaders (3)

Theories for design of curriculum, instruction and assessment in an inclusive school environment. Standards based curriculum, differentiated instruction, using assessment data to design on-going instruction at the classroom level, dynamics of the curriculum change process. Course results in the development of a deep and internalized understanding of effective teaching, learning and assessment for all students including English learners and students with special needs.

EDPL 620   Instructional Leadership of the Collaborative Inclusive School (3)

Leadership skills needed for implementation and evaluation of instructional programs that meet the needs of all learners. Focus on skills needed to involve teachers in reform and renewal of educational practice, shared instructional decision making and systematic improvement processes. Skills needed for effective instructional supervision at the program and individual level, development of instructional staff, mentoring, coaching, as well as direct instructional supervision integrated with the personnel decision making process involving hiring, renewal of contracts and granting of tenure.

EDPL 621   Law and School Management (3 credits)

Apply federal, state and local law to school government and management. Apply the legal principles of statutes and case law to issues related to conduct of students, contracts, liabilities, torts, and individual rights. Describe the legal framework for the governance of public education, and identify the role of the legislative process in the governance of schools. The legal requirement of "due process" will be applied as it relates to students, parents, and school personnel. Special education law and procedures will be covered with a focus on the application of law to the role and responsibilities of the school principal.

EDPL 622   School Finance and Applied Leadership (3)

Application of the principles of leadership and management as found in the research literature to school and finance and management issues. Public school finance, effective management of fiscal resources and business services at the site. Budget development and implementation at the site level to support instructional program priorities and needs of instructional staff in meeting the needs of all students. Communication, human relations, power and authority, decision-making, managing conflict, facilitating change in the context of student management, health, safety, security, school community relations, and school support services (food services, custodial services, facilities maintenance.)

EDPL 623   Understanding and Influencing Organizations in Diverse Educational Communities (3)

This Masters level course provides students with the opportunity to understand and analyze schools as formal organizations and to examine and reflect on the potential of a school leader to influence and direct educational change.

EDPL 624   Human Resource Management in Diverse Schools (3)

Leadership knowledge and skills needed to manage human resources in education settings including personnel administration, supervision, assignment monitoring, negotiation and administration of contracts, supervision of risk management programs and all legal aspects of human resource administration that effect site-level administrator.

EDPL 625   Building Collaborative Inclusive Learning Communities (3)

Understanding and applying the skills needed to build an inclusive learning community, roles and relationships among students, staff, adults and families, professional development, shared decision making, teacher leadership, supporting special populations within the school, designing and implementing strategic plans focused on improved student achievement for all learners.

EDPL 631 Professional Development/Fieldwork in Diverse School Communities I (1) May be repeated.

Collaborative assessment (student, university instructor, and mentor) of candidate competence for meeting CCTC standards and development of professional induction plan. Integration of fieldwork and application of knowledge and skills of entry level administrative position in local school or program settings.

EDPL 632 Professional Development / Fieldwork in Diverse School Communities II (2) May be repeated.

Continuing assessment of candidate competence for meeting CCTC standards, integration of fieldwork, and application of knowledge and skills of entry level administrative position in local school or program settings.

1f.   List of elective courses, by catalog number, title, and units of credit that can be used to satisfy requirements for the major. Identify those new courses that are (1) needed to initiate the program and (2) needed during the first two years after implementation. Include proposed catalog descriptions of all new courses.

1g.   If any formal options, concentrations, or special emphases are planned under the proposed major, explain fully.

        The proposed Masters program will have specializations in Principals Leadership, Special Education, and Language, Culture and Literacy, Curriculum and Instruction, and other specializations. Principals Leadership is the first planned specialization. All specializations will have the same core courses.

1h. Course prerequisites and other criteria for admission of students to the proposed degree major program, and for their continuation in it.

Prerequisites (Prerequisites can be met with courses taken as part of Clear Credential or Induction Program)
  Advanced Integration of Technology into Education
  Advanced Special Education

Program Maintenance Requirements:

As a condition of remaining in the program, students must maintain a grade point average of 3.0 (B) or better with no course grades lower than a C+. The progress of students in meeting this requirement and in progressing toward completion in a timely manner will be monitored at the conclusion of each term as part of the Professional Development and Field Experience Courses (EDPL 631, 632.)

Requirements for Admission to the Master of Arts in Education

Bachelor's degree

Cumulative grade point average of 3.0

Teaching Credential or equivalent professional experiences working with children and families

Three letters of recommendation from professionals who are knowledgeable of the candidate's professional work, at least one of whom is the candidate's current supervisor. Letters from university faculty describing the candidate's ability to successfully complete graduate work are also recommended

Interview with Education Program Admissions Committee

Writing Sample. A written statement of purpose in a 400-600 word essay. This essay includes reflections on personal and professional goals, and how the candidate plans to acquire the knowledge and skills to achieve these goals.

Principals Leadership Specialization requires three years of full-time successful teaching experience post Preliminary Teaching Credential 1i. Explanation of special characteristics of the proposed degree major program, e.g., in terminology, units of credit required, types of course work, etc.

The program implements the distinguishing characteristics of all CSUCI programs: an interdisciplinary and service learning approach to higher education. This program is designed to provide specific preparation for school principals in our region. It is different from the more generic educational leadership or educational administration programs that provide more generic training for individuals who desire to hold other leadership positions in schools such as curriculum supervisors or staff development trainers. Additionally local teachers seeking advanced leadership training who do not desire to become principals will be served by our other specializations that will be developed.

1j.   For undergraduate programs, provisions for articulation of the proposed major with community college programs.

1k.   Provision for meeting accreditation requirements, where applicable, and anticipated date of accreditation request.

The Master of Arts in Education – Principals' Leadership Specialization was specifically designed to meet the latest standards of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing for the Administrative Services Credential. It will be submitted to the Commission January 2004.

2.   Need for the Proposed Degree Major Program

2a.   List of other California State University campuses currently offering or projecting the proposed degree major program; list of neighboring institutions, public and private, currently offering the proposed degree major program.

Most other CSU campuses offer a Master of Arts in Education. In addition, three nearby public and private institutions (California Lutheran, Pepperdine, University of California, Santa Barbara) offer the degree. The CSUN at Channel Islands Program has been offering this credential and Masters Program throughout Ventura County. It continues to be one of the education programs of highest need in the county as indicated by Dr. Chuck Weiss, the Ventura County Superintendent of Schools and other local superintendents. CSUCI will assume the responsibility from CSUN for serving students in our region.

2b.   Differences between the proposed program and programs listed in Section 2a above.

The Master of Arts in Education – Principals' Leadership Specialization is designed to meet the latest CCTC standards for Administrative Services Credential Programs that were revised in the Spring of 2003. It also is designed with a broad national perspective that takes into account local community's needs for well-qualified school administrators.

2f.   Professional uses of the proposed degree major program.

The Master of Arts in Education will provide advanced preparation for professionals in the field of education. The Principals' Leadership Specialization within the Master of Arts in Education will specifically provide the necessary knowledge and skills for school principals.

2g.   The expected number of majors in the year of initiation and three years and five years thereafter. The expected number of graduates in the year of initiation and three years and five years thereafter.

	Number of Students*	Number of Graduates*
Initiation Year	25	5
Third year	50	25
Fifth year	50	45

3.   Existing Support Resources for the Proposed Degree Major Program

3a.   Faculty members, with rank, appointment status, highest degree earned, date and field of highest degree, and professional experience (including publications if the proposal is for a graduate degree), who would teach in the program.

4.   Additional Support Resources Required

This Masters Degree in Education Program will require classroom space, library materials, library electronic databases and the use of Information Technology (IT) resources. The IT requirements will not be extensive - mainly PCs for faculty and student use, PC Lab and "smart classrooms" wired for PCs screen projections and Web-based instruction. The Capstone course will require a dedicated PC and high-speed printer. There are no special laboratory needs.

This program assumes the development of campus resources for students, faculty and staff: parking, offices, food service, health services and key academic support resources (admission, advising, records, etc.).

4b.   *Any special characteristics of the additional faculty or staff support positions needed to implement the proposed program.

During 2004, CSUCI anticipates hiring additional tenure track faculty members to assist in offering the Masters Degree in Education Program. Since this program will be offering only two courses per term for one cohort of students, we anticipate needing one half-time faculty with expertise in principal's leadership to coordinate this cohort during the initial years. In the next three to five years as the program grows we anticipate needing 1.5 fulltime equivalent faculty in educational administration.

4c.   *The amount of additional lecture and/or laboratory space required to initiate and sustain the program over the next five years. Indicate any additional special facilities that will be required. If the space is under construction, what is the projected occupancy date? If the space is planned, indicate campus-wide priority of the facility, capital outlay program priority, and projected date of occupancy.

The program will use the existing classroom space being used for "CSUN @ CI" as enrollments shift to CSUCI students. In addition, the program will use classroom space being developed during the growth of the CSUCI campus.

4d. Additional library resources needed. Indicate the commitment of the campus to purchase or borrow through interlibrary loan these additional resources.

Library resources are being acquired for the program. No additional resources above the existing CSUCI Library acquisition program are needed. The faculty is working with the Library staff to assure an appropriate level and subject distribution of library resources. CSUCI maintains a strong interlibrary loan program with other CSU and state-wide libraries.

4e. Additional equipment or specialized materials that will be (1) needed to implement the program and (2) needed during the first two years after initiation. Indicate the source of funds and priority to secure these resource needs.

No new needs beyond those planned during the development of the campus facilities.

5. Abstract of the Proposal and Proposed Catalog Description

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION

The Master of Arts in Education provides advance preparation for educational professionals and leaders. The first specialization to be offered at CSUCI prepares principals for schools and educational programs.

Principals' Leadership Specialization

The Principals' Leadership Specialization prepares candidates to complete the California Commission on Teacher Credential Standards for the Preliminary Services Credential leading to the Professional Administrative Services Credential. The program prepares students to serve in positions of educational leadership in the California Public Schools. Through integration of course work and field experiences students are provided multiple opportunities to learn and practice the California Professional Standards for School Leaders. The program offers students understanding and application of leadership skills related to relationship building, communication, and the ability to apply, model, and analyze curriculum, instructional strategies, assessment, standards-based accountability systems, and data-based school improvement.   The program also develops each student's understanding of basic school administrative responsibilities including resource management, personnel supervision, and daily operational issues related to safety, law, and public policy.

Prior to recommendation for certification university faculty determine eligibility based on fully documented evidence that each student has demonstrated satisfactory performance on the full range of standards set forth by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

A Masters degree is required for CSUCI to recommend a candidate for the Level I Preliminary Administrative Services Credential. Candidates already possessing a Masters degree may complete the required 30 units and thereby be recommended for the Level I credential without a research project (1 unit).
