- 3. Justification and Learning Objectives for the Course. (Indicate whether required or elective, and whether it meets University Writing, and/or Language requirements) [Use as much space as necessary]

Elective.

Learning Objectives: Under the supervision and instruction of a master teacher, students will study voice or an instrument through work on assigned pieces of music appropriate for their level of ability. No public performance will be expected.

Depending on the level of instruction and their experience, students will be able to:

- Produce proper tone on their instrument or voice.
- Play assigned solo works stylistically correct, using proper tone, expression, and embellishments from all stylistic periods.
- Master at least two solo works per semester, to be performed at “juries” at the end of each semester, demonstrating an understanding of their instrument or voice, and an understanding of the appropriate performance practice of the musical style of the works they are performing. (Juries are short performances in front of the music faculty for assessment purposes.)
- Discuss or explain in writing the proper performance techniques in solo literature for their instrument or voice for each stylistic period.
- Discuss or explain in writing the various forms of solo literature for their instrument or voice within each stylistic period.
