Program Modification

Program modifications must be submitted by October 15, 2015 and finalized by the end of that fall semester for catalog production.
Enter data in YELLOWED areas.

Date (Change date if modified and update the file name with the new date): 10.15.14; REV. 10/21/14, REV. 11/19/14 REV 11/16/14, 11/26/14, 5/12/2015

Program Area: HISTORY

Semester /Year First affected: FALL 2015

Instructions: Please use this Program Modification form for changes to existing program requirements, units, outcomes, emphases or options, or for other programmatic concerns. For minor changes (faculty or address changes, additions of approved electives, minor editing for clarity, and other minor updates) use the Program Update form, available at the Curriculum website.

Paste the latest approved version of your entire program in the left AND right boxes below. Make your deletions in the LEFT column by using the strikeout feature in Word or underlining, and highlight. Insert new language or other changes to the program on the RIGHT and highlight in YELLOW for easy identification. If possible, please align the two columns so that changes appear side-by-side with the original text.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Added New faculty member Catherine Bae

Changed Hist 280 to Hist 300, in response to Program Review recommendations

Changed the Major and Minor requirements to reflect the Hist 280/300 change

Changed the number of LD units and UD units to reflect the change of Hist 280 to an UD course

Deleted 4 Cross-listed courses that did not count for the major

Added 7 new courses

Other minor changes as needed for clarity and to update course prefixes to reflect changes in other programs/other cross -listings

JUSTIFICATION

Everything in the Summary of Changes appears self explanatory: we hired someone, so added her name: we changed a course number in response to Program Review; we changed the units in LD and UD accordingly; we sought and received agreement to de-crosslist courses that do not count for the History major or minor; we included new courses because that is what one does when new courses are approved.

CURRENTLY APPROVED PROGRAM

History

Programs Offered

- Bachelor of Arts in History
- Minor in History

As a discipline that documents and interprets continuity and change through time, California State University Channel Islands' History Program prepares students to search into the human experience, as well as to communicate and analyze historical interpretations and ideas, verbally and in the written form. An emphasis of the program is to examine events from local and global perspectives. In this regard, a defining aspect of the History Program consists of a cutting-edge series of courses that emphasize the United States' relationship with the Pacific Rim, encompassing the Americas, the Pacific Islands, and Asia.

In support of the University's commitment to an interdisciplinary education, the History Program affords students the opportunity to integrate into their plan of study cross-listed history courses as well as subjects outside the discipline to be utilized as part of their electives. Furthermore, the History Program promotes community based applied research by placing student interns within public, private, and non-profit institutions as part of its degree requirement. Promoting the multicultural and international emphases of the University's mission, the History Program encourages students to participate in Study Abroad and to pursue second language ability at least at the intermediate level.

Careers

The History program trains students in the art of inquiry and effective communication. Students with a History degree will be prepared to continue their graduate and post-baccalaureate education. Many history students also find careers in law, education, journalism, or foreign service.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students graduating from the History program will be able to:

- Show good understanding and knowledge of the history of North America;
- Show good understanding and knowledge of global history in other regions of the world;
- Demonstrate good knowledge and problem-solving skills in analyzing contemporary and historical events;
- Demonstrate good communication skills in oral and written forms; and

Double-Counting for History Majors

Courses double counted from the requirements by both the History Program and GE/American Institutions would increase the standard units (21-23) for electives.

According to the GE requirements, students must take 2 units from those interdisciplinary courses numbered 330-349 and 430-449. Six of the 2 units can be double counted and three of the 2 units must be outside the major and not cross-listed with the HIST prefix.

History majors are encouraged, but not required, to select from the following interdisciplinary courses offered by the History Program in satisfying the GE Interdisciplinary requirements:

HIST	333	History of Southern California Chicana/o Art (ART/CHS)	3
HIST	334	Narratives of Southern California (ENGL)...	3
HIST	335	American Ethnic Images in Novels and Film (ART ENGL)	3
HIST	339*	Business in China: Heritage and Change (BUS).....	3
HIST	340	History and Psychology of Nazi Germany (PSY)	3
HIST	349	History of Business and Economics in North America (BUS/ECON)	3
HIST	430	Tradition and Transformation: Literature, History and Cultural Change (ENGL)	3
HIST	436	Psychology and History of East Asian Warrior Cultures (PSY).....	3
HIST	442	The African Diaspora (ANTH).....	3

Minor in History - (18 units)

The minor in History affords non-majors the opportunity to investigate the historical complexities of societies and movements and their legacies in the present. Therefore the minor serves as a primer to the scholarly appreciation of the past.

Lower Division Requirements - 9 units

Students must select three lower division History courses. They must select at least one course from each area listed below:

HIST	494	Independent Research.....	1-3
HIST	497	Directed Studies	1-3
HIST	499	Capstone in History	1-3

Special Topics

(Can be used to fulfill major requirement--see Major advisor)
